City of Waukeee Hires New Marketing & Communications Director

Waukeee, Iowa— The City of Waukeee announced today that Summer Evans has been hired as the new Marketing & Communications Director. She began work at City Hall this week.

Evans worked as Marketing Manager for Des Moines Performing Arts since February 2010. Prior to that, she worked as Communications Specialist for the Iowa Association of School Boards. She also spent time as a TV news reporter, videographer and fill-in anchor in Iowa and South Dakota. Evans is a graduate of Iowa State University.

“Summer brings nearly a decade of marketing and communications experience. She is a great addition to our team,” said City Administrator Tim Moerman. “She will have instrumental roles in building relationships with Waukeee residents and in marketing the many assets of Waukeee to perspective businesses and residents.”
