

4th of July in Waukee

BOOM.....Crack.....Sparkle!

Waukee will host an all-American celebration in honor of Independence Day! Activities start at 3 p.m. with the annual parade through downtown ending at Centennial Park, where the fun continues for the rest of the day and night with inflatables, music and plenty of food! The band Standing Hampton will take the stage at 6 p.m. performing the best classic rock of the 70s, 80s, and beyond followed by an amazing display of fireworks after dusk. Visit www.Waukee.org/fourthofjuly for the parade route and more details.

We would like to invite you to be a food vendor on Monday, July 4th for our celebration. We are looking for various food vendors to come and showcase their delicious items to the citizens who attend our event. Vendors must be set up by 3 p.m. and stay until the conclusion of the firework display at approximately 10 p.m. Vendors will receive a 10'x20' vendor area with electricity available upon request.

Please make checks payable to Waukee Parks & Recreation for the amount of $25 and send to the address listed below.
