Waukee's Annual FamilyFest Celebration Set for January 20

Waukee, Iowa—Families are invited to have some fun at Waukee FamilyFest on Saturday, January 20 from 9 a.m.-noon in the atrium at Lutheran Church of Hope – Waukee (305 NE Dartmoor Drive). This free event includes inflatables to help kids burn off some energy as well as games and activities from local businesses and organizations.

Attendees can:

- Jump, slide and race on inflatables
- Get pictures with great characters or get a caricature drawn for your family
- Pick up a City of Waukee temporary tattoo
- Learn about City services, local businesses and organizations
- Enjoy tasty cookies

Area businesses provide free kid-friendly activities, from crafts to bean bag tosses. Attendees can also meet some staff from the Waukee Police and Fire departments, do a craft with the Waukee Public Library, learn about protecting water quality and sign up to get notified of programs from Waukee Parks & Recreation.

“Whether you're a long time resident or new to Waukee, this event is a good opportunity to get familiar with services in our community while having a lot of fun,” said Danae Edwards, Recreation Supervisor, Waukee Parks & Recreation.
