Waukee Mayor Courtney Clark to give State of the City Address

Waukee, Iowa –On Friday, February 24, Mayor Courtney Clarke will host the annual State of the City address to highlight the City of Waukee’s progress and challenges of 2022 and a look at priorities for the coming year. Residents, business owners, community leaders and other interested individuals are invited to attend this free event.

Mayor Clarke will discuss how thoughtful planning and fostering strong partnerships are helping Waukee thrive now and into the future. She will be joined by directors from the City’s leadership team for a panel discussion about impactful projects and trends, including a successful first year of Triumph Park and record commercial growth. The panel will answer questions submitted during attendee registration as well as take questions live.

In addition, Mayor Clarke will unveil designs for an exciting upcoming project for the City.

“It’s important to reflect on progress, achievements and lessons learned. This event is a wonderful way to celebrate our community,” said Mayor Clarke. “It’s also inspiring to look ahead at the important projects and goals we have to help Waukee continue to flourish.”

Registration is requested as lunch will be provided. The event is being held in the Atrium at Hope Lutheran Church-Waukee (305 NE Dartmoor Dr.). Attendees should arrive at 11:45 a.m. to get lunch and find their seat. The presentation will begin at noon and will wrap up by 1 p.m.

The City of Waukee plans to offer a recording of the address in follow-up to the event for those who are unable to attend. Follow City of Waukee social media pages or sign up for Waukee City Newsfeed notifications (News Flash section) to receive a link.
