Waukeee's Annual FamilyFest Offers Free Fun for Families

Waukeee, Iowa— Families can beat the winter blues with play, prizes, and community at Waukeee FamilyFest on Saturday, January 17, from 9 a.m. to noon in the atrium at Lutheran Church of Hope – Waukeee (305 NE Dartmoor Drive). This free event will entertain the kids while the grown-ups who bring them get to know local organizations and businesses. Kids can burn off energy on exciting inflatables and enjoy crafts, prize wheels, bean bag tosses and other simple games designed for all ages.

Highlights of the morning include:

- Inflatable fun with plenty of bouncing, sliding, and racing
- Temporary tattoos, stickers, and family caricatures
- Interactive booths featuring City services, local businesses and community groups
- Live demonstrations, like dance parties, kid-friendly yoga moves and robots
- Sweet treats, including cookies to enjoy along the way

“FamilyFest is all about bringing families together in a fun, welcoming environment while showcasing the people and programs that make Waukeee a great place to live,” said Danae Edwards, Recreation Supervisor with Waukeee Parks & Recreation. “It’s a great way to spend a winter morning and maybe even discover something new in your community.”
