Lindsay Named Waukeee's New Human Resources Director

Waukeee, Iowa — The City of Waukeee recently hired Michelle Lindsay as its new Human Resources Director. Lindsay began her role with the City on January 7. She will spend her days supporting the City's departments and employees while recruiting top talent and serving as a professional resource on all HR-related items.

Lindsay most recently worked successfully in the HR departments of two different Minnesota cities. Prior to that, her extensive experience includes roles in billing, payroll and financial services. Lindsay holds a bachelor's degree from Winona State University.

"We are so pleased to have Michelle join the City of Waukeee team," said Waukeee City Administrator Tim Moerman. "Her extensive experience in both local government and human resources will be beneficial to our organization and staff members."

The City of Waukeee has 112 full-time employees and hires dozens of part-time staff members at various times of the year.
